

Ronald McDonald Family Rooms

Ronald McDonald Family Rooms provide an oasis of calm for families with children in the neonatal or pediatric intensive care units. The Family Rooms provide a positive environment where families can rest and regroup while staying moments away from their critically ill children. There are three Ronald McDonald Family Rooms in Austin. A fourth family room at Seton Medical Center is scheduled to open in late summer 2014.

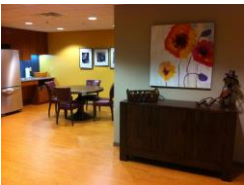

Ronald McDonald Family Room at St. David's Women's Center of Texas

The Ronald McDonald Family Room at St. David's Women's Center of Texas is steps away from the neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) on the North Austin Medical Center campus. This was the first Family Room in Austin, opening in 2009.

Ronald McDonald Family Room at Dell Children's Medical Center of Central Texas

In 2011, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Texas (RMHC Central Texas) opened the Ronald McDonald Family Room at Dell Children's Medical Center. Adjacent to the NICU, this Family Room is a two-bedroom facility that provides a haven for families who are caring for their hospitalized children.

RMHC Central Texas' third and largest Family Room opened in July 2012, with four sleeping rooms, two ADA accessible restrooms, a living room and kitchenette. This Family Room serves families with children in the NICU.

Support the Ronald McDonald Family Rooms

Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Texas is funded, managed and licensed locally through its strong network of corporate donors, community leaders, individual donors and volunteers. If you are interested in supporting the Ronald McDonald Family Rooms, more information is available at rmhc-austin.org/donate.

Volunteer in the Ronald McDonald Family Rooms

Our Ronald McDonald Family Rooms rely on volunteers to help staff the rooms and provide a comfortable, relaxing environment for families. Volunteers work a four-hour shift once a week. In addition, groups can conduct wish list drives to purchase much-needed items for the Family Rooms. To learn more and to apply to be a Family Room volunteer, visit www.rmhc-austin.org/volunteer.
