HOUSE PARTY 2016 RAISES $30,000 TO SUPPORT FAMILIES WITH HOSPITALIZED CHILDREN

AUSTIN, Texas (June 28, 2016) – Austin's young professionals came out to get down and give back at the Palm Door on Sabine on June 18 and raised $30,000 at Friends of the House's annual House Party. Proceeds will support families with hospitalized children who rely on Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Texas' (RMHC CTX). Friends of the House is a young professional group that supports RMHC CTX through volunteering and fundraising.

"House Party is a wonderful event where 200 young professionals come together to not only have a great time but to support families with hospitalized children that rely on Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Texas," commented Benjamin Morton, president of the Friends of the House Leadership Council. "Their generosity will help keep families close to their critically ill or injured children at RMHC CTX's "home-away-from-home".

Guests enjoyed music from Trey the DJ, delicious appetizers from Di Lux Catering and Cru Wine Bar and delectable desserts by Bribery Bakery. Summer cocktails and brews were provided by Tito's, Firestone & Roberston Distilling Co., Adelbert's Brewery and Chameleon Cold-Brew. The evening was complete with fun backyard games including over-sized Jenga, corn hole and a whiskey toss.

House Party's sponsors were The Honest Company, Deloitte, Hahn Public, Midtown Ishmael Law Firm, PC, Barron & Adler LLP, The Dorsen Law Firm, Greater Texas Federal Credit Union, JB Goodwin Realtors, Gunter, Bennett & Anthes, PC, Fricano's Deli and The Emergency Medicine Physicians at Seton Hays Hospital.
